

Hoosiers vs. the Gerrymander: Winning the Fight for Fair Districts

WHO: The League of Women Voters of Greater Lafayette Redistricting Committee and the Indiana Coalition for Independent Redistricting

WHAT: Seminar on redistricting reform featuring IUPUI Professor Sheila Kennedy and Common Cause IN Policy Director Julia Vaughn

WHEN: Sunday, Aug. 26th – 1:30 – 4:30 p.m.

WHERE: Tippecanoe County Public Library
627 South Street, Lafayette, IN

WHY: Gerrymandering is undermining the power of voters and is an important factor in the political dysfunction found in our federal and state legislatures. It's time to put into place a new process for drawing Congressional and state districts that allows voters to choose their elected officials, not the other way around. Whether you're a seasoned activist or new to the issue, come learn how you can help pass legislation to reform redistricting during the 2019 Indiana General Assembly. For more information and to pre-register, contact Joyce Field at jfield@nlci.com. Capacity is 100 persons; therefore, we ask you to please contact Joyce Field by August 22nd to reserve your place.
